USE INSTRUCTIONS OF THE SOUTH SUDAN HUMANITARIAN FUND LOGO

There are two versions of official South Sudan Humanitarian Fund logo that can be used (vertical or horizontal).

The color is preferable blue: C=90, M=57, Y=0, K=0 (Pantone 660 C)

Alternatively, if you are using the South Sudan Humanitarian Fund logo in a dark background, you can use the white version.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By using the South Sudan Humanitarian Fund logo you agree to use the logo in accordance with the requirements set forth herein:

- The logo may be used in promotional materials only if it is directly associated with projects funded by the SSHF. The use of the logo does not i) imply endorsement by SSHF and/or its Members and Partners, or ii) imply endorsement of the aims or opinions of individuals and organizations. Speakers at seminars, conferences and training courses should not use the logo in a way that implies they are speaking on behalf of SSHF and/or its Members or Partners.
The logo(s) should not be altered in any manner. This includes its font, proportions, colours, elements or location of any of the text or graphics. The logo(s) may not be animated, morphed, or otherwise distorted.

Your license to use the logos will terminate no later than termination or expiration of your projects funded by the South Sudan Humanitarian Fund. Notwithstanding any other termination provision, however, SSHF reserves the right to terminate your right to use the logos for any use that does not conform to these requirements, that infringes on intellectual property or other rights, or that violates other applicable law.

When referring to contributions from SSHF, please include the following disclaimer (can be added as a footnote):

"SSHF receives contributions year-round from United Nations Member States and Observers, regional bodies, private sector, foundations and individuals. For more information about SSHF’s donors go to http://www.unocha.org/south-sudan/south-sudan-humanitarian-fund"

SSHF reserves its right to modify these guidelines, the terms and conditions for use of the Logo, or to withdraw authorization at any time.
